The Alexandria Redevelopment & Housing Authority (ARHA) is currently in the process of redeveloping the Samuel Madden Homes (Downtown) site, as part of the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) HOPE VI grant program. The HOPE VI Program has been the driving force behind the revitalization of some of America's public housing developments by providing grants to address the housing and social service needs of public housing residents.

ARHA invites you to participate in a workshop where you will learn about the HOPE VI redevelopment process including understanding the city-wide impact of the project, the importance of maintaining the diversity of families in Old Town, and housing opportunities for low-income families in the City. There will also be an opportunity to interact in small group exercises leading to input into the development of a common vision compatible with the Old Town North Design Guidelines and expectations for the developer.
