

EXHIBIT NO. 1

Youth Recognition (b)
9-24-02

lemonaideaxva@hotmail
.com

To: Beverly I Jett@Alex
Subject: Re:

09/26/02 05:16 PM

Ms. Jett-

Thank you so much for your email. It was so nice to read, and to know that we have your support. The official name of the Project is called Lemonaide, but we, the kids who organized it, are called "Kids Helping Kids." Thanks again!

The Committee Members of "Kids Helping Kids"

>

>Hi,

>

>I read, with interest, the article in The Washington Post today about your >Project. I'll be sure to stop by at one of your stands to try some of your >lemonade and give you a donation. I commend all of you for your efforts >for these worthy causes. Is the official title of your project referred to >as the Lemonaide Project? Thanks, and I'll see you Saturday.

>

>Beverly Jett

Send and receive Hotmail on your mobile device: <http://mobile.msn.com>

Youth Recognition
9-24-02

Mayor Kerry Donley
310 King Street
Alexandria, VA 22314

October 7, 2002

Dear Mr. Donley,

Thank you very much for your support of Kids Helping Kids, Lemonade Day 2002. Thank you for helping us to get a city grant and for letting us speak at the City Council Meeting. Between the city grant and corporate donations we were able to raise $4,500 before we even started selling lemonade. Enclosed is a tee shirt to thank you for your support. We hope that you enjoy this souvenir of what turned out to be a very successful, 1st annual, lemonade day.

Lemonade sales on Saturday, September 28th raised an additional $4,500 and brought our total to approximately $9,000 raised to benefit the Child and Family Network Centers and the Alexandria Police Youth Camp. There were about 60 stands on the 28th and there were kids from ages 4-17 selling lemonade. In all about 200 Alexandria children worked together to help raise money to benefit other kids in Alexandria. It was a great day for the children of the city! Again thank you very much for you generous support of Kids Helping Kids, Lemonade 2002.

Sincerely,

Ainsley Morris
Ainsley Morris

Joanna Kauffmann
Joanna Kauffmann

Remy Kauffmann
Remy Kauffmann

The Executive Committee
Kids Helping Kids, Inc.

