

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, City of Alexandria employees contribute significantly to the quality of life for the residents of the City; and*

WHEREAS, these men and women, who are held to the highest standards of the Mission and Values of the City of Alexandria to complete their work in a way that brings credit to the City, are an invaluable resource for the community; and*

WHEREAS, public service is a noble calling involving a wide variety of challenging and rewarding professions, including providing vital family, health and educational services, maintaining public safety, improving transportation, protecting our environment, and performing management activities which are essential to the efficient and effective operation of the government; and*

WHEREAS, Public Service Recognition Week strives to inform our residents about the quality of people in government and the value of the services they perform, to encourage excellence among Federal, state and local government employees, and to promote interest in civil service careers; and*

WHEREAS, the City Council wishes to provide an opportunity for all residents of this City to pay tribute to the profession and spirit of public service and to express our deepest appreciation for the many contributions public employees make to our daily lives;*

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM D. EUILLE, Mayor of the City of Alexandria, Virginia and on behalf of the Alexandria City Council, do hereby proclaim the week of May 3 through 9, 2004, as:*

“PUBLIC SERVICE RECOGNITION WEEK”

in the City of Alexandria, and I encourage all residents to recognize the crucial role of all public employees who serve our community.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Alexandria to be affixed this 27th day of April 2004.*

WILLIAM D. EUILLE MAYOR
On behalf of the City Council of Alexandria, Virginia
