Dear Leon,

Please accept this letter as notice of resignation from the Alexandria Commission for the Arts. This was a difficult decision for me to make as I care deeply about the ACA and its grantees. But having served nearly six years on the ACA, I feel that it is time for me to step aside and allow someone new with more time, energy and fresh ideas to continue the work.

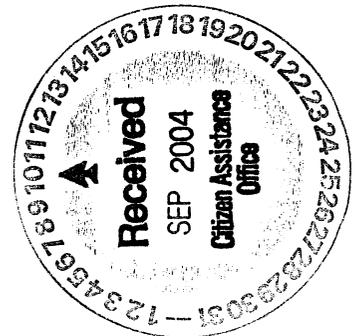

I will remain involved in Alexandria's arts community through the Arts Forum and other local arts groups. I would like, from time to time, to volunteer with the ACA in some capacity on a non-commissioner level and perhaps may even reapply at some point in the future.

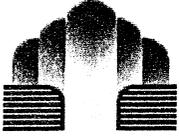

I have so enjoyed working with you, the other commissioners, the Mayor and City Council and Cheryl Anne and will truly miss seeing you all on a regular basis. You have been instrumental in taking the ACA to the next level and I am glad to have been a part of that. I wish you and the ACA much luck for a successful year ahead.

Thank you for the opportunity to serve the arts community of Alexandria.

With best wishes,

Alisa J. Carrel

Dear Leon:

This email will serve as my formal letter of resignation from the Alexandria Commission for the Arts. I cannot tell you what a difficult decision this was for me but until they can figure out all the bells and whistles to this illness, I must curtail my activities.

Please give the rest of the Commissioners my regards and I have enjoyed serving with each of them.

My hope is that the Commission will continue to celebrate and support the arts in our city and that the arts community and the Commission will one day reflect the same diversity that makes Alexandria a wonderful place to live!

CherylAnne, you are the best!

Sincerely,
Lauren R. Mays (Becky)

Lorena Grandos has informed me that she has moved out of Alexandria, and that she is not attending school in Alexandria. As she is no longer eligible to serve on the Youth Policy Commission, please advertise for a youth vacancy.
