Dear Ms. Williams Boyd:

Please accept this letter of resignation for my current position as a member and Chairperson of the City's Emergency Medical Services Council. I recently purchased and moved into my house within the Alexandria section of Fairfax County. Therefore, I can no longer be considered a resident within the City of Alexandria and must forfeit my position on the Council.

I sincerely appreciate the City's willingness and support to have me serve on their Emergency Medical Services Council for the past three years. Chief Vince Whitmore has been a strong supporter and advocate of the Council's efforts and I have greatly enjoyed working with such a fine individual. Indeed, the City is blessed to have a great leader within its emergency medical services community.

It is my hope that one day I may find myself living back within the City. When that time arises, I would like to once again volunteer my services to Alexandria. In the meantime, best wishes and good luck, and thank you once again for providing such great opportunities to your residents.

Sincerely,

Stacey N. Street

City of Alexandria

Dear Ms. Boyd:

After much thought, my husband and I recently made the decision to move back to our roots, family, aging parents and friends in Michigan. For us it is the right thing to do.

Please accept my resignation as Commissioner to the Northern Virginia Regional Commission (NVRC).

My experience serving as a Commissioner has been highly engaging, while affording me the opportunity to work with volunteers, public officials and the community.

Finally, my sincere appreciation to Mayor Euille and Council members, Pepper, Smedberg, Krupika, MacDonald, Gaines and Woodson for the opportunity to serve the city. Living in Alexandria has been a wonderful experience.

I wish the Leadership of Alexandria the best of luck and future success as you all move forward to meet the challenges over the months ahead.

Sincerely,

Natalie Mosher
