State Basis of Appeal: The Board of Architectural Review rejected our front door in a completely inconsistent, arbitrary and subjective manner. Our home was built in the late 1930s, in the style of the time. There are currently no guidelines for Alexandria that apply to doors for our style of home nor for the time period during which it was built.
Attach additional sheets, if necessary.

A Board of Architectural Review decision may be appealed to City Council either by the B.A.R. applicant or by 25 or more owners of real estate within the effected district who oppose the decision of the Board of Architectural Review. Sample petition on rear.

All appeals must be filed with the City Clerk on or before 14 days after the decision of the B.A.R.

All appeals require a $150.00 filing fee.

If an appeal is filed, the decision of the Board of Architectural Review is stayed pending the City Council decision on the matter. The decision of City Council is final subject to the provisions of Sections 10-107, 10-207 or 10-309 of the Zoning Ordinance.
