Dear Ms. Boyd:

It is with regret that due to increasing demands on my time, I feel I must resign my position on the Affordable Housing Advisory Committee.

Since being appointed to the Committee I have become president of my citizens' association, which is requiring more of my time than it did when I was just a member of the association. In fact, between now and the end of January there are six meetings I should attend as the president of my association in order to keep my neighbors informed about things occurring in the city.

Serving on the Affordable Housing Advisory Committee has been my pleasure and honor, but I cannot adequately represent my association and give the time necessary to be a good member of AHAC at the same time.

This decision is not one I arrived at without great thought, but it is the correct thing for me to do at this time.

Sincerely,

Dear Ms. Boyd:

I am writing to inform you that at the end of February I will be leaving my position as a citizen member of the Human Rights Commission.

In March, I will be starting a new job in Princeton, New Jersey, and my family will be following me at the end of the school year. I am very excited about this new opportunity; however, I regret having to resign from the Commission, and my family will deeply miss the Alexandria community.

Serving on the Human Rights Commission has been a privilege, and I am grateful to the Council for their trust and the honor of contributing to the City's governance.

Sincerely,

Andrew D. Hyman
