Subject: SHA recommends Bill Dickinson for Sanitation Authority

Dear Ms. Henderson:

Seminary Hill Association, Inc., (SHA) is pleased to recommend William (Bill) Dickinson to City Council and endorses his candidacy as a Citizen Member of the Alexandria Sanitation Authority that will be selected on February 18, 2012.

Bill is a longtime resident of Alexandria and past president of SHA. His knowledge of the Alexandria community, his work over many years on land conservation and water

Comments: pollution issues—particularly in the greater Washington DC area—and his experience governing a special district makes him a uniquely qualified candidate for this position.

Please communicate SHA's endorsement of Bill Dickinson to City Council.

Sincerely,
Nancy R. Jennings,

President
Seminary Hill Association, Inc.

Subject: The Candidacy of Bill Dickinson for the Sewer Authority

Dear Ms. Henderson: I am writing to express my strong endorsement of Bill Dickinson for the opening on the Alexandria Sewer Authority. Few people in Alexandria, or even in Northern Virginia, have made the contributions that Bill has made to improving the environment of the region, in preserving green space, enhancing park land, and generally improving recreational activities. To this may be added his professional background as an environmentalist and work to remedy pollutive elements in our area. He will be an immediate asset to the Authority and a definite plus for the citizens of Alexandria. I urge the City Council to appoint him to this post. All the best. Jack Sullivan

PS I hope you will forward this endorsement to the Mayor and Members of City Council
