Subject: Fwd: City of Alexandria Website Contact Us - EMail for Rose Boyd (rose.boyd@c...

Hello All,

In an email to Rose Boyd, requesting advice on whether I needed to request a residence waiver, I indicated that have made the decision to make my home in Chesapeake Beach, Maryland, 4014 17th Street, which I bought in preparation for my retirement, my primary residence. However, I continue to maintain a residence in the City of Alexandria (City), 417 North Alfred Street, where I reside Monday afternoon through Friday noon, and I continue to operate my business, WomenFutures, Inc., in the City.

As can be seen in the forwarded email, Ms. Boyd advised that I must resign from the Information Technology (IT) Commission and reapply requesting a waiver. And, that I would need a new Endorsement Letter from the School Board. Per Ms. Boyd's advice, I herein submit my resignation.

I am willing to continue representing the School Board on the IT Commission, if so honored. I will continue to serve on the Alexandria Symphony Board of Trustees and as the Chair of the Alexandria Chapter of the National Congress of Black Women and, therefore, I will continue to be very active in the City, where I have resided for 30 years.

I wanted to expedite resolution of this matter, thus this email to all concerned parties. I await your decision.

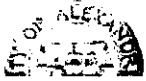

Thanks much,

Doris J. Cammack Spencer

If your primary residence is no longer Alexandria, then you must resign from the IT COmm. and reapply requesting a residency waiver. We also need a new endorsement letter from the School Board.

Rose, here is the resignation from Bill Gustashaw. Thank you for taking necessary steps to have a new representative from public schools appointed. FYI, The Board is currently collaborating with TCWilliams on a video for their TV Station and, hopefully, a criminal justice assembly or event at the school.

Ms. Perry:

My name is Bill Gustashaw. I have been serving as the Alexandria City Public Schools representative on the Alexandria Criminal Justice Board and am currently vice chair of the board. I took a leave of absence from my position at Hammond Middle School as a special education teacher in order to pursue my doctorate degree at the University of Virginia. As a result, I was still fulfilling my responsibilities to the board as the representative. Unfortunately, the course load and responsibilities of my second semester make it difficult to meet my obligations with the Criminal Justice Board. I regretfully must resign my position and ask that someone be recommended to the board to take my place. It was a wonderful experience for me and highly recommend the experience to any teacher in Alexandria Public Schools that may be interested. The contact person is Mrs. Carol Swinburn.

Thank you.
Sincerely,
Bill Gustashaw
