

City of Alexandria, Virginia

MEMORANDUM

DATE: MAY 27, 2004

TO: THE HONORABLE MAYOR AND MEMBERS OF CITY COUNCIL

FROM: PHILIP SUNDERLAND, CITY MANAGER PS

SUBJECT: CONSIDERATION OF RESOLUTION FROM THE LANDLORD-TENANT RELATIONS BOARD REGARDING THE VOLUNTARY RENT GUIDELINES

---

ISSUE: City Council consideration of the Resolution from the Landlord-Tenant Relations Board regarding the Voluntary Rent Guidelines.

RECOMMENDATION: That City Council approve the attached Resolution (Attachment I) to maintain the City's Voluntary Rent Guidelines at 5% where the tenant pays utilities and 7% where the owner pays utilities, as recommended by the Landlord-Tenant Relations Board.

BACKGROUND: Since 1950, the Code of Virginia has prohibited localities from enacting rent control. However, for over 20 years, the City has encouraged landlords to limit rent increases in accordance with the City's Voluntary Rent Guidelines. The City's Voluntary Rent Guidelines are suggested maximum rent increases for existing tenants, but they provide no authority to the City to enforce the guidelines against landlords who fail to comply with them. As long as Virginia law remains unchanged with regard to rent control, the City's rent guidelines will remain voluntary, and the City will be unable to mandate that rent increases be held to any recommended percentage. An act of the General Assembly would be required to allow the City to control rent increases.

The Landlord-Tenant Relations Board reviews the City's Voluntary Rent Guidelines every six months, and makes recommendations to City Council at least annually regarding the adequacy of the Voluntary Rent Guidelines. If significant market changes occur, the Landlord-Tenant Relations Board may recommend changes more frequently. The current guidelines, most recently reviewed by City Council in March 2003, were reduced at that time from 9% to 7% if the landlord pays utilities and remained at 5% if the tenant pays utilities.

In preparing its recommendations, the Board considers increases to the operating cost data compiled by the Institute for Real Estate Management (IREM) as well as rent increase data and annual vacancy surveys by Delta Associates, a national real estate consulting firm. The Board also considers increases in market rents for the City. In addition, the Board reviews budgets prepared using rental property averages in Alexandria. In reviewing these data, the Landlord-Tenant Relations Board attempts to set the guidelines at a level that will account for inflation and property owners' increases in cost, without unduly burdening tenants.

DISCUSSION: Increases in market rents (rents charged to new tenants) have been modest since last year due to higher vacancy rates and increased competitiveness among properties. The vacancy rate increased from less than 1% in January 2000 to 4.9% in January 2003, and to 5.2% in January 2004. Average rents increased less than 3% from January 2003 to January 2004, after having increased by 25.7% from January 2000 to January 2003. Many properties are offering incentives and rent specials to attract new renters. Over the last year, staff of the Office of Housing's Landlord-Tenant Relations Division has received only occasional complaints regarding rent increases charged to current tenants, and these complaints have been resolved to comply with the rent increase guidelines.

After reviewing the above data and market conditions, the Landlord-Tenant Relations Board voted unanimously at its April 2, 2004 meeting to recommend to City Council that the Voluntary Rent Guidelines remain at 5% for properties where tenants pay utilities and 7% for properties where the owner/landlord pays utilities. The Board determined that the 5% guideline for properties with tenant-paid utilities should be maintained, not only to compensate landlords for increases in costs and taxes, but also because many properties have long-term tenants that pay a rental amount well under the market rent for the unit they occupy. Board members agreed that a 5% increase would allow landlords to increase rent incrementally without a sudden financial burden to the tenant that an immediate increase to the market rent could cause. The Board determined that a 7% increase would still allow the landlord a reasonable return after accounting for increased utilities and taxes. Board members representing landlords noted that most properties are not currently implementing rent increases in excess of 7% for existing residents. Landlord members added that competition in the current rental market will prevent landlords from implementing excessive rent increases, or even increases up to the maximum percentage of the guidelines, if the increase would exceed the market rent offered to new tenants or would be above the rents charged by comparable properties.

The Board does not consider unusual or capital improvements in determining reasonable increase guidelines. The resolution adopting the Voluntary Rent Guidelines includes provisions which allow adjustments for unusual costs including capital improvements, major repairs or significant increases in taxes or assessments.

2004 VOLUNTARY RENT GUIDELINES RESOLUTION
CITY OF ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA
RESOLUTION NO. _____

WHEREAS, more than half of the dwelling units in the City of Alexandria are renter-occupied; and

WHEREAS, the Alexandria City Council has continually expressed its concern for the well-being of the City's tenants and landlords through proposed charter changes, legislation, and establishment of the Landlord-Tenant Relations Board; and

WHEREAS, the Alexandria Landlord-Tenant Relations Board has previously expressed its concern to the City Council regarding excessive rent increases;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Council of the City of Alexandria, Virginia calls upon the Alexandria Landlord-Tenant Relations Board to monitor and investigate complaints of rent increases in excess of the following guidelines and to conduct a review of the guidelines every six months and forward recommendations to Council at a minimum of every 12 months:

- If the tenants pay all utilities, not more than five percent cumulatively per year;
- If all utilities are included in the rental amount, not more than seven percent cumulatively per year;

PROVIDED, however, that Board investigators will recognize and take into account any unusual costs, capital improvements and major repairs to the property (which should be substantiated by the owner), and extraordinary increases (more than 50%) in assessments;

PROVIDED, further, that the landlord may apportion increased real estate taxes in an equitable manner;

PROVIDED, further, that when a landlord converts utilities to a sub-metered or individually metered system, the amounts of monthly rents, plus annualized utility costs, shall remain within these guidelines.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Landlord-Tenant Relations Board will report to City Council on the adequacy of the above guidelines in 2005.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Alexandria to be affixed this 9th day of June, 2004.
