DATE: JUNE 7, 2006

TO: THE HONORABLE MAYOR AND MEMBERS OF CITY COUNCIL

FROM: JAMES K. HARTMANN, CITY MANAGER

SUBJECT: ORDINANCE TO PROHIBIT THE DELIVERY OF FREE NEWSPAPERS TO PRIVATE PROPERTY OWNERS WHO HAVE DECLINED THE SERVICE

ISSUE: Citizen complaints about unsolicited newspapers being delivered to their homes and their inability to get the newspaper publisher to stop the deliveries.

RECOMMENDATION: That Council pass the ordinance on first reading and schedule it for public hearing, second reading, and final passage on Saturday, June 17. Although the ordinance becomes effective upon final passage, the “Do Not Deliver” list must be published first and would become effective on September 1, 2006.

DISCUSSION: Consumer Affairs staff began receiving citizen complaints in December 2004 regarding the delivery of unwanted free newspapers and their inability to stop the deliveries. Citizens also expressed concern about the newspapers being delivered when they were out of town and piling up at their door or in the front yard. Several homeowners associations have asked that papers not be delivered in their area because of similar concerns and security and littering issues associated with the delivery of the newspapers.

To date, staff have processed a total of 102 complaints. Staff has had some success working directly with the circulation manager and other staff of the newspapers to terminate the unwanted deliveries. A number of citizens have reported that the newspapers have been stopped for limited periods of time and then the deliveries resumed. Staff determined that in many instances contractors make the actual deliveries and their response to the complaints has been mixed. In addition, newspaper staff turnover has resulted in citizen “no delivery” requests not being transmitted to new staff members.

Over the past two years, Council has received an increasing number of complaints from residents who expressed concern about their inability to stop the delivery of the free newspapers. The City Attorney has suggested a “do not deliver” approach modeled on the national “do not call” list employed to stop unwanted telephone solicitations on home telephones. The proposed ordinance...
establishes a “Do Not Deliver” list maintained by the Office of Citizen Assistance. It provides for the publication of the list on a quarterly basis and imposes escalating fines for violations.

FISCAL IMPACT: Approximately $500 in FY 2007 to implement the ordinance requirements. To make that money available to the Office of Citizen Assistance a supplemental appropriation amendment will be processed in the fall.

INFORMATION ON PROPOSED ORDINANCE

Title

AN ORDINANCE to amend and reordain Title 9 (Licensing and Regulation) of The Code of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, 1981, as amended, by adding thereto a new Chapter 14 (Unsolicited Newspaper Deliveries).

Summary

The proposed ordinance would establish a “do not deliver” list, analogous to the “do not call list” applicable to telemarketing, and permit residents of the City to list their property address with the City’s Office of Citizen Assistance. The delivery of unsolicited newspapers to premises included on the list would be prohibited. Delivery by mail, by handing directly to the recipient in person, and by placing in a newspaper box provided by the recipient would not be subject to the prohibition. The list would be updated and published quarterly. A request for inclusion on the list would be valid for a two-year period, unless the request is cancelled sooner. The listing would apply to all unsolicited newspapers, without regard to content, subject matter or viewpoint. The proposed ordinance also prohibits depositing an unsolicited newspaper in the public right-of-way immediately adjacent to a listed premises. Publishers and distributors would be required to remove offending newspapers from public or private property. Violation of the new regulations would be a class five civil violation, punishable with a $25 fine for the first infraction, $50 for the second infraction, and $100 for the third and subsequent infractions within one year at a listed address. A fee of $5.00 is proposed for listing, and $25.00 for a copy of the list, and transactions must be available on-line. Information on the list will be subject to the Freedom of Information Act.
