DATE: FEBRUARY 8, 2010

TO: THE HONORABLE MAYOR AND MEMBERS OF CITY COUNCIL

THROUGH: JAMES K. HARTMANN, CITY MANAGER

FROM: BERNARD CATON, LEGISLATIVE DIRECTOR

SUBJECT: RECOMMENDATIONS AND STATUS REPORT (NO. 2) ON LEGISLATION INTRODUCED AT THE 2010 GENERAL ASSEMBLY SESSION

ISSUE: Recommendations and status report (No. 2) on legislation introduced at the 2010 General Assembly Session.

RECOMMENDATION: That City Council approve the legislative positions included in Attachment 1 (Recommended Positions on Bills of Importance to the City), as recommended by City Council’s Legislative Subcommittee (Vice Mayor Donley and Councilman Smedberg).

DISCUSSION: The 2010 General Assembly Session is now nearly half way over; it is scheduled to adjourn on March 13. As of next Wednesday (February 17), except for budget or revenue legislation, the House may consider only Senate bills, and the Senate may consider only House bills.

As noted in earlier memoranda, the only major issue for the General Assembly this year is the state budget. The key date everyone awaits is February 21, when the Senate Finance and House Appropriations Committees will report their recommendations on amendments to the budget proposed by Governor Kaine before he left office. Changes are bound to be numerous and significant, since the proposed increase that Kaine recommended to the state income tax to balance the budget has been rejected.

City Package. The following are bills from the City's legislative package that the City asked members of the City's delegation to introduce (Attachment 2 is a status report on these and other "City Package" bills):

- SB 572 is the City’s Charter bill. It proposes to amend the Charter so that the size of the board of review of real estate assessments (also known as the Board of Equalization) is increased from five to nine members and allow this board to sit in panels of at least three members each, with each panel performing its duties independently of the others. The bill will also incorporate into the Charter a general law provision enacted by the 2009 General Assembly on the standard by which a variance can be granted, by eliminating the requirement for a showing of a hardship "approaching confiscation." SB 572 has passed the Senate and awaits action by the House.

- HB 269, which proposes an increase in the sales tax paid on motor fuels purchased in Northern Virginia, was defeated by the House Finance Committee, which is not approving any legislation with new or increased taxes.

- HB 273 would create a provision in the Virginia Retirement System (VRS) to allow Alexandria deputy sheriffs, EMTs, and fire marshals to retire at age 50 with 25 years of service, without losing their City Supplemental pay (they must now serve 30 years under VRS to retire early with an unreduced benefit). If passed by the General Assembly, City Council would have to adopt an ordinance to implement it. HB 273 has been assigned to the House Appropriations Committee, but has still not been considered by the Committee.

- House Bill 454 would amend the Virginia Human Rights Act to prohibit discrimination in hiring or in the terms and conditions of employment. The Act, which affects only small employers (existing provisions of federal law already prohibit large employers from the types of discrimination this bill covers), currently protects individuals only from discriminatory discharge. The bill is awaiting action by the House General Laws Committee.

- House Bill 457 would have required drivers to stop (not just yield) for pedestrians in all crosswalks where the speed limit is 35 mph or less. The bill was defeated in a subcommittee of the House Transportation Committee. A Senate bill (SB 228) that would apply only to marked crosswalks has passed the Senate and awaits House action.

- House Bill 461 would have amended the State's red light camera law by (1) eliminating the requirement that the Virginia Department of Transportation (VDOT) approve any intersections for red light cameras; and (2) allowing private entities to access DMV records (to match license plate numbers with the names of vehicle owners) as long as this is done under police supervision. This bill was also defeated in a subcommittee of the House Transportation Committee. A bill patroned by a House Republican from Virginia Beach (HB 1292—Tata) would also allow private entities to access DMV records, as the City's bill would have; it has been approved by the House Transportation Committee (14-7) and awaits action by the full House.

- HB 948, which would have required VDOT to prepare an Environmental Impact Statement or an Environmental Assessment prior to any I-95/395 HOT Lanes construction, was rejected by the House Transportation Committee.

- HB 1116 seeks to prohibit Virginia's state and local governments from discriminating in public employment on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, pregnancy, childbirth or related medical conditions, age, marital status, disability, sexual orientation, or status as a special disabled veteran or other veteran protected under federal law. The legislation still awaits action by the House General Laws Committee.
Emissions Trading. SB 128, and HB 1300, as introduced, would remove a provision of existing law which allows (but does not require) the State Air Pollution Control Board to prohibit electric generating facilities located within a non-attainment area in the Commonwealth (e.g., the D.C. area) from meeting their NOx and SO2 permit limits by purchasing allowances from other permitted facilities that emit less NOx and SO2 than their permits allow. SB 128 was considered by a Subcommittee of Senate Committee on Agriculture, Conservation, and Natural Resources this past week. The Subcommittee recommended amending the bill so that the current law would continue to apply in Northern Virginia (the Air Board will still be able to prohibit emissions trading by electric generators in Northern Virginia). The bill now goes to the full committee, which meets February 8.

House Bill 1300 was sent to a committee that is very favorable to business interests (Commerce and Labor, which is chaired by the bill’s patron). A Subcommittee of the Committee has recommended passage of the bill as introduced. The City will have difficulty defeating or amending this bill in the House, and will likely have to await its consideration by the Senate to seek the same amendment that has now been added to SB 128.

Public Housing Barment. House Bill 264, as introduced, would have required housing authorities to adopt written policies concerning their "no trespass" policy, or barment, from any premises owned by the authority. Authorities would also have been required to follow other procedures set out in the bill, including (in the original version of the bill) the provision of written notice of the policy to the tenant, the posting of signs on the premises about the policy, and an appeal process. After a number of revisions, the bill was considered and defeated by the Housing Subcommittee of the House General Laws Committee.

Composite Index. Normally, the state reconfigures the composite index for K-12 education funding at the beginning of each biennial budget. When Governor Kaine proposed his biennial budget, the Governor included a provision that would delay the use of the new composite index for a year, until FY 12. If this is adopted, Fairfax County loses $61M, Loudoun loses $34M, and Prince William loses $23M. Other nearby losers include Manassas, Manassas Park, Spotsylvania, Stafford, and Fauquier. Although Alexandria would lose far less funding ($17,000), it is supporting its neighboring jurisdictions and opposes any delay in using the new index. Whether the new index will be used in FY 2011 is not known at this time.

Transportation Funding. There is still hope for a Special Session later this year to consider comprehensive legislation to fund the State’s transportation needs. With this in mind, Delegates Tom Rust, Joe May, and Vivian Watts developed House Bill 971, which they are seeking to have carried over for consideration in the Special Session if it occurs. The bill would provide funding for Northern Virginia, as well as statewide transportation needs. Statewide revenues would be increased by levying a one percent “user fee” on the sale price of motor fuel.

In addition to the commercial real estate tax add-on already available to them, the bill would create a regional revenue fund by imposing an additional half-cent sales tax, and a $0.40/$100 add-on grantor’s tax, in all Northern Virginia localities. No Northern Virginia locality would have access to the revenues from these two taxes available to pay for its projects unless it adopts a $0.125 add-on commercial real estate tax.

Forty percent of the regional revenues would be returned to the jurisdiction where they were raised (assuming the jurisdiction has imposed the commercial real estate tax), and the remainder of the funds would be used by NVTA for transit and other transportation projects. Each locality’s long-term benefits from the NVTA funds would equal the revenue collected in the locality. None of the new taxes or other provisions of the act would be implemented until the State’s unemployment rate drops below its January 2008 level for at least six months.

A half cent sales tax in 2008 would have produced $17.7 million in Alexandria, and $175.6 million in all of Northern Virginia. The grantor’s tax would have produced $1.3 million in Alexandria in FY 2009, and about $50 million in all of Northern Virginia. A statewide one percent motor fuels tax would produce about $121 million annually.

The bill was approved for carryover by a subcommittee of the House Finance Committee; the concurrence of the full Committee to carry the bill over is now needed.

State Budget. There is no new information on the biennial budget. As noted above, significant additional cuts are expected, but it is unlikely that there will be any information about these prior to February 21. The House and Senate are likely to have major differences in the way they approach the biennial budget, and any differences between the two bodies will probably not be resolved until the final days of Session (if then). Staff will provide additional information on the budget as it becomes available.
