Ms Lisa Chimento, Chair
Budget and Fiscal Affairs Advisory Committee

Dear Lisa,

Due to business and personal reasons, I am resigning my position on BAFAC as the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce representative.

I enjoyed working with you and the other members of BFAC during the past few years. I learn so much about the city by being involved with this committee. I will miss the discussions and being part of the budget review process but I must admit I will not miss balancing tax season and budget season.

Resigning now provides you time to get the new chamber rep up to speed before the budget process begins.

It was an honor to serve with you and the other dedicated BFAC member.

Good luck with budget season.

Regards

John J. Renner II

Comments: Dear Rose,

I must offer my resignation from the Building Code Board of Appeals, as I have moved to Denver Colorado. In my craziness of selling my house, trying to buy a house  $\frac{3}{4}$  of the way across the country and get moved, I forgot to contact the city and my board. Please give the rest of the members of the board my best wishes.

Sincerely,

Anna Gibson McCaffery
