Dear Mayor and City Council Members:

Families First of Alexandria, Inc. is pleased to support Nancy McCormick, our Executive Director, represent the parents of children with emotional and behavioral disorders, on the Alexandria Youth Policy Commission.

Ms. McCormick has served in this capacity for the past three years; and it is our board's unanimous recommendation she be reappointed for the next three year term.

Ms. McCormick's involvement has provided an important voice on the Youth Policy Commission discussions and deliberations concerning emerging and existing issues affecting Alexandria's youth. Her knowledge and experience in representing families who parent children with mental health challenges is most valuable and needs to continue.

Ms. McCormick has tirelessly served Families First of Alexandria, Inc. and the Youth Policy Commission to ensure that recommendations for youth programs and services adequately consider the needs of all the youth residing here in Alexandria. Her passion for serving children and youth - both professionally and personally - is unequalled.

On behalf of Families First, I urge the you to reappoint Ms. McCormick to another term on the Alexandria Youth Policy Commission.

Sincerely,

MaryBeth Flowers, President
