Hi Pam,

I wrote Kathleen Pepper about this last week, but I have not heard from her in reply. I'm copying her again, and Vince. on this email.

I've served on the Commission for quite a number of years, and I've been really pleased to help support archaeology in the city.

But I have recently decided that I need to step down. It's hard to do this right now, with so many exciting things happening - new director of OHA, Freedmen's Cemetery on track, the Ben Brenman award coming up, the memorial at the Hooff building, and so much more.

My decision has to do with personal matters - time, shifting interests, and, especially, growing children. My two kids are at ages 7 and 10 and so much time must go to them. And probably because of them, our family interests have shifted to school, sports, and music commitments.

So while the Commission is as active and engaged as I've ever seen it, I have decided that I need to give up my seat and let someone else take over this AAC responsibility.

Because I am the AHS liaison, I believe that I should also resign from that board at the same time, and I intend to do so, but I want to notify the AAC first.

I plan on attending the September AAC meeting, but making that my last meeting.

Let me know your thoughts and if there are some steps we should take before that meeting, etc.

It's been great to work with you in so many ways over more than a decade, and with Fran, Babara, Steve, and Ruth. It's really hard to do this now, with such a good, active commission, and with so much new and exciting in history and archaeology in the city: the new OHA director, the Preservation Summit, and so much more. It is an exciting time for Alexandria Archaeology!

My interest in archaeology won't diminish, and I would hope maybe some day in the future maybe I can reprise and serve again.

Best,

Bill Tabor

Subject RE: Environemntal Policy Commission Attendance Report

Kay,

Samantha Ahdoot resigned last year. She told me she had sent a resignation letter to your office at the time. I thought it was on the attendance report as well. She resigned as of September of last year.

Subject Re: Public Health Advisory Commission Attendance Report

Dear Kay – As per our conversation, the following members have given me an oral resignation from the Public Health Advisory Commission.

Rika Maeshiro (term ending 11/9/07) has moved out of the area and has given me an oral resignation.
Robert Younes (term ending 3/28/08) has had to resign for personal reasons, he too provide me with an oral recommendation.
Bonnie Sakalaris (term ending 3/28/08) was the INOVA Alexandria Hospital representative and is no longer with the hospital and that seat is now vacant. No resignation was provided.

Please let me know if you have any questions or if I can provide additional information. I appreciate your help.

Sincerely,
Jim Krustapentus
Chair, Public Health Advisory Commission

Dear Suzanne,

As I mentioned at our monthly board meeting, I will be resigning from the City of Alexandria Social Services Advisory Board. My husband and I are expecting our first child at the end of this year and my childbirth class will conflict with Monday night board meetings.

I plan on attending next month's August 20th meeting; therefore, my resignation will be effective on August 21, 2007.

It has been a great honor and pleasure to serve on the SSAB for the past two years and perhaps I will be able to rejoin in the future as a parent member!

Sincerely,
Sabrina B. Wear
