City of Alexandria, Virginia

MEMORANDUM

DATE: JUNE 19, 2008

TO: THE HONORABLE MAYOR AND MEMBERS OF CITY COUNCIL

FROM: JAMES K. HARTMANN, CITY MANAGER

SUBJECT: REPORT FROM THE COUNCIL COMMITTEE ON BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

---

ISSUE: Receipt of the Report from the Committee on Boards and Commissions.

RECOMMENDATION: That City Council receive the report and request the Executive Secretary for Boards and Commissions to distribute the docket item to all boards and commissions for review and comment.

BACKGROUND: In January, Council established a committee to review the City's general requirements for board and commission appointments, term limits, and determine whether efficiencies could be made by combining groups with similar mission statements and sunsetting those whose mission had been completed (Attachment 1). At the February 12 meeting, Council asked the Committee to also review the residency waiver policy for board and commission appointments. The Committee members are Vice Mayor Redella S. Pepper, Council Member Timothy B. Lovain, Deputy City Manager Michele Evans, and Executive Secretary for Boards and Commissions Rose Williams Boyd.

DISCUSSION: The Committee's recommendations follow.

Proposed Recommendations of a General Nature:

1. References Section on the Personal Data Form completed by all applications for appointment to a board or commission should be amended to read:

"Please list names and addresses of four references that you have contacted, know your qualifications for the position, and support your application." Copy of current form is attached (Attachment 2).

Rationale: This addresses the concern that several persons listed as references in the past were unaware of the fact that they had been listed as a reference and did not necessarily support the appointment of the applicant.

2. Codify all standing committees created via resolution or docket item and task forces that have become ongoing groups. These groups are listed below.

- Gang Prevention Community Task Force
- Beautification Commission
- Local Emergency Planning Committee
- Park and Recreation Commission

Rationale: Section 2-4-4 (a) of the City Code requires that all standing committees be established by City ordinance.

3. Require annual reports to be submitted, that include a statement of specific goals for the coming year, since the City Code requires such a report, at the time the Annual Attendance Reports are due to ensure that every group submits.

Rationale: The submission of annual reports by boards and commissions will allow the City Council to review the activities of the groups and determine whether they can be sunset or are duplicating the efforts of another group.

4. The Committee does not recommend a change to the current residency waiver policy at this time.

Rationale: Many business owners/managers and others involved in City activities do not reside in Alexandria. All initial appointments involving non-residents will be docketed as a contested appointment, and Council can decide whether it wishes to grant a residency waiver.

5. Unopposed non-resident incumbents and City staff in designated position appointments should be docketed as uncontested appointments.

Rationale: Once Council has granted a residency waiver, there is an assumption that the waiver will be granted on subsequent occasions for incumbents. Many City employees are appointed based on federal/state/local statutory requirements and must be appointed to the position.

6. Groups that meet on a monthly basis should determine whether they can meet on a bi-monthly or quarterly basis.

Rationale: This will eliminate unnecessary meetings and decrease the amount of staff time devoted to board and commission meetings.

Boards, Commissions and Committees Mission Review Recommendations:

1. Groups that have completed their tasks and can be abolished
  - Ad Hoc Task Force to Review New Police Facility Sites
  - Ad Hoc Transportation Policy and Program Task Force

- Potomac Yard Fire Station and Affordable Housing Task Force
- Transportation Safety Commission

2. Groups that need to be studied further before a decision can be made

- Beautification Commission – The Committee recommends that the role of this group be expanded to deal with the beautification of City portals and tie this effort in to the City’s overall marketing efforts.
- Commission on Information Technology – Committee recommends that the mission statement of the group be rewritten to reflect 21st century technology with the City using this group as a sounding board for new technologies. The Committee also recommends that the IT Commission discuss whether and to what extent telecommunications issues and complaints stay with the IT Commission or be transferred to the Consumer Affairs Commission. The IT Commission’s recommendation(s) should be reviewed by the Consumer Affairs Commission before submission to the City Council.
- Alexandria Economic Development Partnership Board - The Economic Sustainability Report recommends that no City Council member or staff person should serve on the AEDP Board. AEDP is reviewing its structure and will be reporting to the Council in the fall.
- Commission on HIV/AIDS - The membership of this group should be restructured by broadening the positions (it appears that there are too many designated positions that are currently unfilled) and reducing its size.
- Fair Housing Testing Program Advisory Committee and Affordable Housing Advisory Committee should be combined for better efficiency of operations.

Term Limits:

- The Committee recommends that unless specified by federal, state or City legislation, after serving 10 consecutive years on any board, commission or committee, at the expiration of the current term, the incumbent would not be eligible for immediate reappointment to that group, but can apply for the next vacancy. Any incumbents as of the effective date of the ordinance would be eligible for at least one more consecutive term. This limitation would not apply to the groups listed below or to organizational designees in designated positions, elected officials and their designees, and City staff.

The following groups have policy-making and/or regulatory authority and the Committee and the City Attorney will study whether there are legal obstacles to imposing term limits on these groups.

1. Planning Commission
2. Board of Architectural Review (both panels)
3. Board of Real Estate Assessments
4. Board of Zoning Appeals
5. Community Services Board (already has term limits)
6. Sanitation Authority
7. Building Code Board of Appeals

ATTACHMENTS:

Attachment 2. Personal Data Form

City Hall

Dear Mayor Euille and City Council members:

The Alexandria Archaeological Commission (AAC) has reviewed the recommendations made by the Council Committee on Boards and Commissions in its June 19, 2008, report to you. We have the following comments regarding the annual report submission deadlines for each Board and Commission and the proposals for term limits for members of Boards and Commissions.

The

AAC does not support the recommendation for term limits for members of Boards and Commissions, as presently drafted. First, the proposal does not affect all Boards and Commissions equally as seven Boards and Commissions are explicitly exempt from the requirement, including some which have the longest serving members and the least turnover, such as the Board of Architectural Review. Members who represent private organizations or societies are also excluded from the term limits since each must nominate one of its own members for a Board or Commission position. The result of these two categories of exemptions is that only persons who have "At-Large" or Planning District I, II, or III, positions on some, but not all, Board or Commission are subject to term limits. This does not seem to adequately address the apparent problem of long-term incumbency on Boards and Commissions.

Second, the term limits recommendation does not address the issue of unfilled vacancies. If an incumbent is prohibited by term limits from applying for a vacancy but no one else applies, then that position is vacant until either someone eventually applies or the term expires so that the now-former incumbent can again apply. This leaves a Board or Commission short-handed. Depending upon the size of the Board or Commission and the number of vacancies, this can adversely affect the ability of that Board or Commission to effectively fulfill its mission. The AAC recommends that an exemption be permitted, at the request of the Board or Commission, for positions that have vacancies for which the outstanding incumbent is still interested.

Comments:

Third, the proposal for term limits does not clearly address how term limits come into play in situations where an incumbent was an organizational designee but changed to an "At-Large" or Planning District representative or changed from an

"At-Large" to a Planning District representative or changed from one Planning District representative to another Planning District representative. If an organizational designee served at least 10 consecutive years in a designated position but then sought to be appointed to an "At-Large" or Planning District representative position, would that person be ineligible since he or she had already served 10 consecutive years? What if a member moved from Old Town to the West End but had served at least 10 consecutive years as the representative from Planning District I but now sought to be the representative from Planning District III or a member "At-Large"? Are the term limits to be applied to a person or to a position?

The AAC recommends acceptance of the annual report deadline. The AAC does not support the term limits provision, as drafted, but recommends further consideration of the term limits issue. We appreciate the opportunity to respond to this proposal.

Sincerely,

S. Kathleen Pepper, Chair

MEMORANDUM

TO: Rose Williams Boyd, Executive Secretary
Boards and Commissions
FROM: Mary Catherine Gibbs, Chair
Commission for Women
RE: Report from the Council Committee on Boards and Commissions
DATE: October 18, 2008

The Report from the Council Committee on Boards and Commissions was distributed to all the members of the Commission for Women at our meeting on September 9th and at our meeting on October 14th, the Commission for Women voted to make the following comments on the Recommendations in the Report:

Proposed Recommendations of a General Nature.

1. References Section on the Personal Data Form completed by all applications for appointment to a board or commission should be amended to read:

"Please list names and addresses of four references that you have contacted, know your qualifications for the position, and support your application." Copy of current form is attached (Attachment 2).

Rationale: This addresses the concern that several persons listed as references in the past were unaware of the fact that they had been listed as a reference and did not necessarily support the appointment of the applicant.

Comment: Agreed.

2. Codify all standing committees created via resolution or docket item and task forces that have become ongoing groups. These groups are listed below.

- Gang Prevention Community Task Force
- Beautification Commission
- Local Emergency Planning Committee
- Park and Recreation Commission

Rationale: Section 2-4-4 (a) of the City Code requires that all standing committees be established by City ordinance.

Comment: Agreed.

3. Require annual reports to be submitted, that include a statement of specific goals for the coming year, since the City Code requires such a report, at the time the Annual Attendance Reports are due to ensure that every group submits.

Rationale: The submission of annual reports by boards and commissions will allow the City Council to review the activities of the groups and determine whether they can be sunset or are duplicating the efforts of another group.

Comment: Agreed.

4. The Committee does not recommend a change to the current residency waiver policy at this time.

Rationale: Many business owners/managers and others involved in City activities do not reside in Alexandria. All initial appointments involving non-residents will be docketed as a contested appointment, and Council can decide whether it wishes to grant a residency waiver.

Comment: Agreed.

5. Unopposed non-resident incumbents and City staff in designated position appointments should be docketed as uncontested appointments.

Rationale: Once Council has granted a residency waiver, there is an assumption that the waiver will be granted on subsequent occasions for incumbents. Many City employees are appointed based on federal/state/local statutory requirements and must be appointed to the position.

Comment: Agreed.

6. Groups that meet on a monthly basis should determine whether they can meet on a bimonthly or quarterly basis.

Rationale: This will eliminate unnecessary meetings and decrease the amount of staff time devoted to board and commission meetings.

Comment: While understanding the rationale behind this recommendation, the Commission would comment that whether or not a commission needs to meet on a less regular basis may be an indication of whether or not that commission needs to be eliminated.

Boards, Commissions and Committees Mission Review Recommendations:

1. Groups that have completed their tasks and can be abolished

- Ad Hoc Task Force to Review New Police Facility Sites
  - Ad Hoc Transportation Policy and Program Task Force
- Potomac Yard Fire Station and Affordable Housing Task Force
- Transportation Safety Commission

Comment: Agreed.

2. Groups that need to be studied further before a decision can be made

- Beautification Commission – The Committee recommends that the role of this group be expanded to deal with the beautification of City portals and tie this effort in to the City's overall marketing efforts.
- Commission on Information Technology – Committee recommends that the mission statement of the group be rewritten to reflect 21st century technology with the City using this group as a sounding board for new technologies. The Committee also recommends that the IT Commission discuss whether and to what extent telecommunications issues and complaints stay with the IT Commission or be transferred to the Consumer Affairs Commission. The IT Commission's recommendation(s) should be reviewed by the Consumer Affairs Commission before submission to the City Council.
- Alexandria Economic Development Partnership Board - The Economic Sustainability Report recommends that no City Council member or staff person should serve on the AEDP Board. AEDP is reviewing its structure and will be reporting to the Council in the fall.
- Commission on HIV/AIDS - The membership of this group should be restructured by broadening the positions (it appears that there are too many designated positions that are currently unfilled) and reducing its size.

- Fair Housing Testing Program Advisory Committee and Affordable Housing Advisory Committee should be combined for better efficiency of operations.

Term Limits:

The Committee recommends that unless specified by federal, state or City legislation, after serving 10 consecutive years on any board, commission or committee, at the expiration of the current term, the incumbent would not be eligible for immediate reappointment to that group, but can apply for the next vacancy. Any incumbents as of the effective date of the ordinance would be eligible for at least one more consecutive term. This limitation would not apply to the groups listed below or to organizational designees in designated positions, elected officials and their designees, and City staff.

Comment: While not formally objecting to this recommendation, the Commission for Women questions whether this will address the problem it seeks to solve. Could the same purpose be accomplished by a more in depth reappointment process, possibly by requiring the chair of each commission to certify the level of participation of each member applying for reappointment, could council take more of a role in reappointment such that it doesn't act like a rubber stamp?

More importantly, the Commission believes that unless State Code specifically prohibits terms limits for certain Boards, no Boards should be exempt from this requirement if it is adopted. And finally, the Commission discussed whether this should apply throughout all levels of elected or appointed positions in the City.

Subject Term limits for regulatory boards and commissions, Docket
Item 5, October 18, 2008

Several members have asked whether the City Council can, by ordinance, establish mandatory term limits for the seven regulatory boards and commissions identified as such in the report from the Council Committee on Boards and Commissions. The answer to that question depends on the specific provisions of state law, either in the City's Charter or in the Virginia Code, which govern the establishment of each board and provide for the qualifications of the members thereof. Below is a summary of the relevant provisions for each board.

1. Planning Commission. The City's Planning Commission is established by Section 9.02 of the City Charter, and this provision is self-executing, i.e., no action or ordinance by council is required or contemplated. Section 9.02 establishes the qualifications for appointment of the members of the Commission by Council, and does not include any term limit. Thus, I would conclude that Council cannot impose de jure term limits on the members of the Planning Commission. Nonetheless, Council could by policy decline to reappoint incumbent members who have served for 10 or more consecutive years.

2. Boards of Architectural Review. The BARs are established pursuant to City Charter Section 9.09(j), and this provision is not self-executing. Thus, in order to establish the BARs, Council must adopt an ordinance, specifying, among other things, the number of and qualifications for BAR members, as well as "standards, rules, regulations and procedures for the operation of any such boards of architectural review." Thus, I would conclude that Council can impose de jure term limits on BAR members.

3. Board of Real Estate Assessments. The Board of Real Estate Assessments, otherwise known as the Board of Equalization, is established by Section 4.08(j) of the City Charter, and that section is self-executing. Section 4.09(j) provides for a five member board, three of whom are appointed by the Circuit Court and two by Council, and established the qualifications for board members. No provision for term limits is include, and I thus conclude that Council lacks the authority to impose de jure limits, but can, as with the planning Commission, establish a policy not to reappoint members who have met the 10 years service mark.

4. Board of Zoning Appeals. The BZA is established by Section 9.14 of the Charter, and this section is self-executing. Section 9.14 establishes the qualifications for appointment of the members of the BZA by Council, and does not include any term limit. Thus, I would conclude that Council cannot impose de jure term limits on the members of the BZA. Again, however, Council could by policy decline to reappoint incumbent members who have served for 10 or more consecutive years.

5. Community Services Board. This Board is established pursuant to Virginia Code Section 37.2-501, and Section 37.2-502 provides in pertinent part that "No person shall be eligible to serve more than three full terms." Thus the CSB is subject to term limits at this time.

6. Sanitation Authority. The Alexandria Sanitation Authority was established pursuant to the Virginia Water and Waste Authorities Act, now codified as Virginia Code 15.2-5100, et seq. Section 15.2-5113(A) provides in pertinent part that "The board members of an authority shall be selected in the manner and for the terms provided by the agreement or ordinance or resolution or concurrent ordinances or resolutions creating the authority. " In addition, Section 15.2-5110 provides that the Council can cause the Articles of Incorporation of the Authority to be amended at any time. Thus, I conclude that the City Council has the authority to establish de jure term limits for the ASA Board members.

7. Building Code Board of Appeals. This Board is established pursuant to Virginia Code Section 36-105, which provides in pertinent part that there shall be "a local board of Building Code appeals whose composition, duties and responsibilities shall be prescribed in the [Uniform Statewide] Building Code." Section 119.2 of the USBC provides that "members may be reappointed." Thus I would conclude that Council does not have the authority to add de jure term limits for members of the Building Code Board of Appeals. Again, however, Council could by policy decline to reappoint incumbent members who have served for 10 or more consecutive years.

I will be pleased to answer any additional questions as they may arise.
