I would like to thank you all for consideration of my name for appointment to the Alexandria Community Service Board although I did not receive the required votes, I was honored to have been considered. I am even more honored to know that there exists a multitude of other volunteer opportunities in my Comments: community to serve and help in some measure to improve the quality of life in our city which is what I intend to do.

Respectfully,

Isaac A.Green

Dear Mr.Mayor, Mr.Vice Mayor and City Council Members,

I write to you all today to seek your collective support in my desire to be appointed to the Alexandria

Community Service Board when the issue comes before you on Tuesday, April 27,2010 at the Council meeting. I would like to refer you to my (group e:mail) sent on March 13, 2010 Message ID [20033]. My name is Isaac Green and I would like to bring you all updated on my progress since I last communicated with the Council. I am pleased to report that I graduated from the DC Central Kitchens Job Training Program on Tuesday,

April 20, 2010 with an overall score on my final examine and class performance of 97%. I look forward to attending NOVA in the fall semester to obtain a degree in culinary arts.

I am now in the full time employ of the Executive Chef of the U.S. Senate this is my second go around as an employee of the Senate the first being my 4 years of service to U.S.

Senator Ted Stevens (R) Alaska as his driver and staff assistant, I have always loved this institution and the process of its work. I am now in my third week of the Alexandria Citizens Academy and I am delighted to find that the processes of City Government are equally captivating and interesting. I especially enjoyed the presentation from City Manager Hartman, and the insights of my fellow Academy participants.

I seek this appointment because I believe that I am able to contribute meaningfully and thoughtfully to the work of the Alexandria Community Service Board. As a consumer who has and still is dealing with the continuous struggle to maintain sobriety and fulfill my obligations to be a productive citizen, I know the challenges and vicissitudes that those of us in recovery face on a daily basis. I am also aware of the housing issues that we face as I am currently residing at Christ House, I can speak to the mental health aspects that we encounter. [This is the first time that I have publicly acknowledged what I am about to state]. I am also living with HIV as a matter of accuracy since my CD-4 count has fallen below 200 the correct medical diagnoses is AIDS. This has been a real life changing event for me but I take comfort in the care that I receive from the Alexandria Health Department and the help I receive from the National Institutes of Health in Bethesda. I am encouraged about my longterm prognosis and I continue on with my life in the face of such adversity, I still have much left to accomplish and many more people to help. I have no bones about admitting my status my only concern is that the nature of ignorance and fear being what it is that some could use this information about me to less than constructive ends but I can't be too concerned about this now. I owe so much to my family, my friends and to the people of this great City of Alexandria. I try everyday to make amends for my previous mis-steps in life, and I hope that the Council will favorably consider my appointment to the Alexandria Community Service Board. I hope to see you all before the start of Council business on Tuesday, April 27, 2010.

Comments:

Respectfully,

Isaac A.Green
