Subject: new board member

Dear Mayor and members of the City Council,

I have been chair of the Alexandria Community Services Board for a little over three years and this is the first time I have seen three very qualified people apply for one board position. It is wonderful to know there are that many people willing to serve but since you can choose only one for now, I will share my preference.

Comments: We try on the board to represent as many viewpoints and communities as possible and since the departure of one board member several months ago, we have been lacking a voice for the very young to tell us what their needs and their parents needs are. Erin Croyle is the the mother of a toddler son who has Down Syndrome and who recently came to our annual public hearing to speak very eloquently about her son and other children like him. She talked about the great difference in her life and that of her son's because of our infant program and the help she had from CSB in finding what she needed for her child. She is obviously committed to making sure her son and others like him have the best of care and the best chance at living a life like everyone else. We were all impressed with her testimony as I think you would have been.

. Thank you,

Mary Anne
