I would like to serve as the citizen member for the Alexandria Human Rights Commission. I am a long time advocate for treatment of others with dignity and respect. I hope to apply my skills and experience to helping others in my community.

By way of experience, I offer the following. I worked for eight years in the Civil Rights Division of the Department of Justice, investigating and litigating claims of employment discrimination. I also conducted numerous outreach programs on the subject of discrimination.

In my work for the nonprofit Physicians Committee for Responsible Medicine (PCRM), I focused on protecting those who had been taken advantage of by greedy and uncaring businesses, in matters concerning public health, consumer protection and false advertising. Since leaving PCRM, my work has focused on individuals facing eviction or other housing problems.

I am also experienced in advocating for victims of domestic violence. I co-founded a program with other state and community groups to provide advocates in support of domestic violence victims in court proceedings. I served on a detail working as a domestic violence prosecutor. I am a trained domestic violence counselor and have also served on the board of a domestic violence shelter.

My commitment to the City of Alexandria is demonstrated by my volunteer activities. I prepare and serve meals at Carpenter's Shelter, I help deliver meals through the Meals on Wheels program, and I tutor at a local elementary school.

I am motivated and energized by service to the public. Service as the citizen member for the Alexandria Human Rights Commission would be an honor and a chance to further serve my community.
